Day 5: Sunday, 11 October 2020 Grand Canyon - Lake Powell "Grand" is not a strong enough word for today. This morning, take the time to explore the Grand Canyon. Theodore Roosevelt once said, "This is one of the great sights which every American, if he can travel at all, must see." Behold those same breathtaking views as we travel along East Rim Drive. Later, a short ride brings you to Cameron Trading Post. For nearly a century, the post has acted as a haven for travellers, traders and explorers. # WHO YOU'LL BE TRAVELLING WITH

INFO ON YOUR HOST:

Hi, I am Peter. For the past 5 years I have run Outback Queensland Tourism, which has given me a greater insight in to the changing landscape of our arid interior. I believe that the open Australian Outback tells the story of its exploration and the growth of its diverse landscapes -- reflecting the trailblazing spirit of the nation. I also love travelling the arid outback-like areas of the USA including Arizona, Utah and Nevada. Gorges, they don't come much bigger than the Grand Canyon in the USA. Its layered bands of red rock revealing millions of years of geological history. The colours and geological layers are awe-inspiring. And, of course, you can't leave Bryce Canyon out of that story with its crimson-coloured hoodoos. Whilst similar in some respects to our land, they also have a story to tell.
